Raman, J.

Pursuant to the order passed yesterday, the parents of the girl Alesha Majeed, interacted with her in the Chambers . Thereafter again we interacted with the girl. But she is not prepared to go along with her parents and she expressed that she wanted to go along with the 6th respondent. Since the girl is a major and since she has stated that she is not under the illegal custody of respondents 6 and 7, which is already recorded in the previous proceedings, we find that the allegations raised in this writ petition are not substantiated. We are satisfied that the girl Alesha Majeed has made a voluntary statement. Accordingly, we dismiss this writ petition. Both the 6th respondent and the girl apprehend threat to their life. The alleged detenue Ms. Alesha Majeed shall be given necessary protection by the State for her life during her stay in the State.

P.R. RAMAN,
(JUDGE)

K. HEMA,
(JUDGE)
